Board Agrees On Plan To Publish Expenditures Tuesday

Hancock County Board of Supervisors agreed to a preliminary plan to publish expenditures in a backlog can be...

The above facts prove that interruption and failure to resume publication rests on the board, and that the publisher, indeed, has cause for grievance in the manner in which he has been...

...the total expended for each item listed shall be published within 15 (fifteen) days after adjournment...

Obviously, if the clerk delivers this matter three months after adjournment, there can be no publication within 15 days. Furthermore, the statute provides that the board or the clerk may be liable to a fine up to $500 for failing to comply with the statute, and delivery three months in arrears certainly is failure to comply.

Still another issue which may be raised is other publication work released by this board. The Sea Coast Echo likewise was low bidder on other legal - i. e., notice to bidders, etc. But the board refused to accept any bid and has, indeed, issued this business often to the highest bidder in direct violation of the law.

Much county printing work has gone to firms outside the county without benefit of competitive bid. The board's own records show numerous purchases from firms by Tom Ketchings, Dement Printing Company, Etc.

In view of the above facts, it is the Hancock County Board of Supervisors - not the Sea Coast Echo - which has violated the contract to publish proceedings.

Health Service, State Commission OK Hospital

The federal Public Health Service has given preliminary approval to construction of the proposed 30-bed Hancock County hospital, it was announced from Washington this week.

In a telegram received by the Echo from Congressman William Colmer's office, it was said: "Have just wired Johnson Shaw, president of the Board of Supervisors as follows: Glad advise preliminary approval by public health service of survey for construction of thirty bed hospital Hancock County. Estimated cost $395,500. Estimated federal part, $245,300."

It was also announced by the American Legion's hospital committee, which is backing the project, that approval has been given the plan by the state commission on hospital care, this to hand in hand with public service approval.

In regard to the recent snag encountered by the County's John Rutherford, Jr., chairman of the Hospital Committee of the Clement R. Bontemps Post 139, said, "We have NOT accused anyone in the delay incurred. We are NOT interested in pinpointing the responsibility. We are only interested in seeing that we get a hospital here. Our Post has more than 300 members and we can not accept the responsibility of opinions or statements made by members as a whole. No individual member of this Post can point an accusing finger at anyone for delaying action on the County's application based on any official statement by the Legion Executive Board or Hospital Committee since neither have accused anyone or blamed anyone."

Armistice Parade Plans Made

A detachment of 120 soldiers from Keeler Air Force Base will march in the big Armistice Day parade planned here for November 11, it was revealed today by Claiborne Ladner, Chairman of the Special School Americanism Committee of the Clement R. Bontemps Post 139 of Bay St. Louis.

Every school in the City and County is expected to furnish marchers for this "bigger than ever" Armistice Day Parade, Ladner said. "We have asked each school to increase its number of marchers this year and the response has been gratifying," he added.

The parade marchers are due to assemble on Carroll Avenue West of Second Street not later than 2:30 a. m. The big parade will start at 10:00 a. m. and proceed up Carroll Avenue to the Beach, thence South to Main St., thence West to Second Street, thence South to Union Street, thence East to the Beach, thence North to Main Street, then west to the Hancock County Courthouse.

A stream-lined Patriotic Program is planned at the Courthouse upon the arrival of the marchers. It is expected that the Parade and Program will be completed not later than 12 Noon.

It is understood that all of the upper class of the Bay High School will march in the Parade, while the lower classes will be conducted by the teachers to the Courthouse grounds for the ceremonies at that point.

As in the past, the City Siren will sound for one minute at 10:59 a. m. on the date of the parade. At 11:00 a. m., if still in progress, the parade will halt. Every person in the city and county is asked to stop for one minute of silent prayer at the end of the siren's sounding at 11:00 a. m. Ladner said.

A practice established here last year will be followed again this year, Chairman Ladner said. It is that of halting the massed flags at every Church on the route of the parade to give the Tribute of the marchers to each House of God, he explained. It is expected that a representative of each church will be in front of their respective churches to accept the Tribute and in turn salute the flag of our Nation, Ladner said.

JUDGE LESLIE GRANT RULES

AUBERT DUNN ARGUES EMPHATICALLY

D. A. HOLLEMAN TELLS OF STATE'S INTEREST

Poll Books Show Irregularities

Judge Leslie Grant today suggested that the Board of Supervisors consider three re-districting petitions to see if 25 per cent of the voters want an election.

Upon his suggestion, the mandamus suit against the board was withdrawn by District Attorney Boyce Holleman. But he said he would file a new suit if the board did not take the judge's advice Monday or Tuesday.

He said what happened in the courtroom this morning: Lucien Gex, attorney for the board read the board's reply to the lawsuit. It was based on two main points—first, the petition did not have enough signatures, and second, that there are minor technical errors in the petition.

Then Aubert Dunn, one of the outside lawyers hired by the supervisors, asked that the case be dismissed. Judge Grant refused to dismiss it.

Holleman then took the floor. He explained that the board counted the names on the first two petitions, which were given to the board Oct. 11 and Oct. 19. However, the board did not count the third petition, Registered with Clerk A.C. Mitchell Oct. 29.

Holleman asked the judge to include the Oct. 29 petition. Judge Grant said he could not consider it in this suit. But he suggested that the board and the petitioners get together Monday and consider all three.

If the board refuses to act within a week, the petitioners then could file a new suit.

Clerk Mitchell certified that there are 4,660 qualified voters, and that there are only 1,911 signers on the first two petitions. This is 154 short of the 25 per cent.

But the third petition, which Judge Grant now wants considered has more than 250 more names. So the petitioners then would have the 25 per cent they need.

There was no explanation given on why the board, when it suddenly considered the first two petitions Wednesday, did not consider the third.

Mitchell claims he presented the third petition to the board. But Supervisor Manny Hubbard disagrees. He said Mitchell did not present this third petition to the board, and that's why the board did not act upon it.

Meanwhile, all of the county's voting and poll tax records have been microfilmed by the citizens' committee. Many irregularities have been reported—cases where persons are listed as qualified when they have died or moved away.

The mandamus case against the supervisors originally went into a special session of circuit court last Saturday.

Lucien Gex, attorney for the Board, immediately moved for dismissal of the case on the grounds that the board had not had time to act. He was supported by Edwell Adam and Aubert Dunn, two outside lawyers brought in by the board. District Attorney Boyce Holleman defended the people's right to be heard on this issue. Attorneys Joel Blass and John Gardner, representing the petitioners, supported this stand.

Judge Leslie Grant then threw out the dismissal. He ruled that the Board did not show intentions of acting as provided by the law.

The board then asked for 60 days to present its case. "I'll give you three days," Judge Grant replied.

He then set the trial for 9 a. m. today in the Hancock County Court House at Bay St. Louis.

Monday the petitioners began taking microfilms of all poll tax and voting records in the courthouse. Investigators report a brief study launched Tuesday showed many irregularities, and that many may be caught.

The courtroom was packed Saturday when Judge Grant opened the case.

After Gardner had read the order written by District Attorney Boyce Holleman, Board Attorney Gex said, "The required 30 days have not expired before the mandamus suit was called. The board cannot act until they have determined whether or not the petition is signed by 25 per cent of the qualified electors. The law reads that the board has from 30 to 60 days to call an election after they have checked the qualifications of the signers."

"At this time the board is without any authority," Bidwell Adam, attorney from Gulfport and an assistant to Gex in this case, said, "Certainly this court cannot tell this board that they are required to call this election now. That would be the same thing as Sheriff John Egloff or District Attorney Holleman going ahead and putting a man in the electric chair four days before he was due to die. This mandamus suit is premature."

Holleman then stated to the judge the position that the State of Mississippi had taken in this suit.

He said, "I felt that it was my duty to present this mandamus suit on behalf of the State of Mississippi, because the board had refused to make a judicial findings to see if the petition was sufficient."

"It is the duty of the District Attorney to represent the people when they have rights that he clearly pointed out in the statutes. The board is under a clear mission on hospital care this to go petition. That is the only interest of the State in this case. I do not know if the petition is a good thing for the county, but I do know that the people have their rights and that is what I am interested in."

Blass said, "If the board refuses to act on this petition of what value is the right of petition or of what value is the statutes. The people's rights will be a wholly empty right."

Gardner said, "The board did not desire nor did it propose to act on the petition."

Aubert Dunn, a Gulfport attorney also defending the board in the suit, said, "Certainly the members of the board are human. They have weaknesses. You cannot put a yardstick upon the mistakes of a human being."

Then with many complicated gestures with his hands, arms and mouth, Dunn continued, "There are three requests made in the mandamus suit. Certainly judge, you know as well as I, or any lawyer in the State of Mississippi, that there can be only one request issued in this type of suit."

After Dunn had finished his argument, Judge Leslie Grant ruled, "I overrule the motion made by the counsel for the board to dismiss the petition."

"The board had no discretion but to act on this petition. I am sure that they were mistaken in the proper procedure that had to be taken. The petitioners had a right to ask for this suit."

Dunn said the defense asked for 60 days "in order that the board might render a judgement which would be to the best interest of the county."

Judge Grant answered, "Whether or not this matter is a good thing for the county is for the voters to decide."

St. Stanislaus Defeats Gulf Coast Rival, Biloxi, 12 - 6; Bay High Upset By Petal High 20 - 13

Fakier, Schnexnayder Score T. D.'s;

Meet McGill in Homecoming Tilt

An intercepted pass by center Maurice Artigues proved to be the straw that broke the camel's back in St. Stanislaus' 12-6 victory over Biloxi, Friday night.

The game until that point was a nip and tuck affair. Stanislaus led 6-0 when Biloxi began to drive, but Artigues rushed backward from his backer-up position, snagged a bullet toss and raced back 20 yards to the five yard line. Four plays later quarterback Dick Fakier dove over from the six inch line for the winning margin.

Coach Farley Day said, "That intercepted pass was the turning point of the game. Until then it was an open ball game."

Stanislaus scored first in the game on an aerial from Fakier to James Schnexnayder, who made a leaping, falling catch, a la Willie Mays, in the end zone.

Both of the attempts to convert by Woody Santa Cruz failed.

Biloxi was unable to move through the Stanislaus forward wall throughout the major part of the contest. The seven "Rocks" of granite proved to be an unmovable wall.

But finally in the last minute of the game, after Stanislaus had been penalized 60 yards within 50 seconds, Biloxi passed for a score from the 20 yard line.

The first try for the extra point was nullified because of a penalty and the second try was successful.

This Sunday Stanislaus will meet McGill, another school under the tutelage of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart, in its annual Homecoming celebration.

McGill has played even ball through the first part of the season. The only common opponent of the two teams was Moss Point.

Stanislaus dropped a close decision to the Pointers, 7-6, while McGill defeated the same team 32-21.

Coach Day said, "McGill has an outstanding quarterback in Kerts. They have an all around good backfield. This is its strongest point. We do not have any definite plans, right now, except to use the same combination that we have been using."

It looked pretty good Friday night. The spirit of the boys is high. It has always reached its high point for the Homecoming game."

He continued, "The Biloxi game was one of our better games. The backs were more consistent than they have been. Penalties hurt us on several occasions."

Brother Phillip, line coach and athletic director, said, "This was our best defensive game. The line outchaged Biloxi all night. The downfield blocking on offense also showed some improvement."

Douglas Talbot and Birch Wilbert received slight injuries in the game last week. But it is reported that they will be in top condition for the McGill game.

Talbot, Leon Fazio, Maurice Artigues, Mitchell Decuir and James Schnexnayder played outstanding defensive ball for Stanislaus. Fakier, Billy Rhodes and Walter Gex were the offensive guns.

The game Sunday afternoon will start at 2 o'clock. Many of the former graduates of the school are expected to attend.

Among week-end visitors to the Charles Lozano were Mr. and Mrs. Harry X. Kelley and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lozano.

Never two without three is the old saying. This even holds true when the subject at hand is unusual. Last week A. C. Mitchell, Clerk of Courts, snagged a duck with his fly rod.

In your writer's memory this is the third time this has happened in Hancock County.

The first to accomplish this feat was the late Joseph Mauffray and the second was another member of that family, Now Mitchell has repeated history. By the way he threw the duck back in the water. Duck season hasn't opened yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Curda will leave Thursday morning for their home in Chicago after spending a week in Bay St. Louis, visiting friends. Mr. Curda has had a time fishing for the past week. He has made some good catches including a 6 1/2 lb. red, which he sent to his folks back home with some large specks. Ed expects to return on his next vacation.

Ed Molpes has joined the Highway bridge fishermen. He caught some specks and a large channel mullet.

Steve Kenney and son, Sonny of Houma, La., were visiting friends here over the week end. The men did not get to go fishing. We know they catch their share back home, being week-end fishermen. Will be over to see you, Steve.

Eddie Heath was really excited this week when he landed that 12 lb. red.

Luke Elliott from Baton Rouge will be over this weekend to go fishing and attend the Homecoming at St. Stanislaus. Luke is with "We the People" at the Baton Rouge branch.

Among those enjoying the old game of golf and seen lately at the Pass Christian Isles Golf Course were Roy Craft, Bobby Fayard and J. D. Horlock, Jr. They have been badly bitten by the bug.

Mr. and Mrs. John David won the Scotch Foursome held Sunday at P. C. Isles Golf Course. They had a net 76. There were about 12 couples participating. The course is in excellent shape just now and the weather has been ideal. More matches will be coming up soon.

A big Halloween party was held Saturday night at the club. It was an informal affair and a grand success. The proceeds went to the Pest Control Fund.

Reports came in this week that big speckles were being caught up Jordan River, both with live bait and by trolling. Small mullets were most effective as bait. Speckles are being caught at Pearl River all the way from the Highway bridge to the mouth.

Green trout are doing their share of biting. Some beauties were caught up Bayou Phillip, Jordan River and Mulatto Bayou and tributaries this week.

Doc Smith was seen getting a few new trolling baits today. He's ready to go.

It was great to see Kenneth McCarthy this week Ken says he is getting his share of squirrels. See you soon Ken.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lozano expects to leave about the last of November to attend the Propeller Club Convention in Miami, Fla.

Purvis Next Opponent Here Friday Sluggishness Major Factor In Defeat

Bay High was the victim of an upset last weekend as it dropped a one touchdown verdict to Petal, 20-13.

This week the city school will try to return to the winning column when it meets Purvis at the Stanislaus Stadium, Friday night. Coach Lance Lumpkin said, "The kids, considering the trip to Petal, were a little flat. We know they are capable of playing better ball than they played last Friday."

"This week we play Purvis although we haven't had a chance to scout that team, we understand that they have a scrappy club. But, comparing the scores of the games against teams we have both played, the contest should be on about even terms."

In Petal last Friday the host team scored first on a 20 yard end run in the second quarter. It added the extra point.

Bay High bounced right back and marched down to the 8 yard line, from where Hugo Favre plunged off tackle for the score.

Clayton Adams failed to convert.

In the third quarter neither team was successful on offense and exchanges of punts ran the clock out.

Petal came back in the fourth period and scored on another end run. This one originated on the Bay High 35 yard line.

Again the kick was good.

Bay High began to move rapidly. Several plays later it was on Petal's 27 yard line. Quarterback Donald Cole, on a split T keep play raced this distance for his team's second score. Adams kicked for the extra point was good.

Bay High kicked off and on two successive plays threw Petal for losses. Then with third down and 24 yards for a first, Tommy Holden rushed through the line and tackled the Petal back behind the line of scrimmage. But as he fell he lateraled to a teammate who galloped to Bay High's 20 yard line before Favre brought him down from the back.

Two plays later Petal scored from the 20 on an off tackle run. The kick was no good.

The game ended before Bay High could threaten again. Larry Landrum, Bay High guard, was injured in the second quarter. He received a fractured bone in his knee.

Coach Lumpkin said, "Up until that time he had made the majority of our tackles. His absence during the rest of the ball game was keenly felt."

Others who played a good game for Bay High were, on defense Kent Seller, Clayton Adams, Donald Cole, Henry Monti and Favre; on offense, Monti and Monti.

Going into the Petal game Bay High has a record of four wins and four losses.

Kickoff time Friday night will be at 8 o'clock.

Kiln Plans Basketball Tourney Nov. 12-13

MAGAZINE EDITOR VISITING FOR VACATION REST

BY GREGORY FAYRE

A middle-aged man, wearing a suit and tie, walked through the office. He looked like a business man enjoying a needed vacation. He was in a loud sport shirt and a pair of casual slacks.

He was a man of high intelligence and had traveled extensively. He was from New York. When he introduced himself as W. Dailey, you recalled he was a writer, and one with a distinguished reputation.

John Dailey is the non-fiction feature editor for McCall's magazine, publication read each day by four million, six hundred thousand people.

Mr. and Mrs. Dailey were here with Mrs. Dailey's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Heath of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Dailey started his newspaper career 23 years ago with the St. Louis Globe Democrat. At that time he had recently received a journalism diploma from the University of Missouri.

In the year 1927 Dailey came to New Orleans, where he worked for the Times-Picayune. But after a short period he transferred to the Item Tribune, now the Orleans Item.

He was first on the city desk of the Item and then was made editor of the Sunday paper. By this time word of Dailey's ability began to spread. It fact it spread rapidly across the United States to California, where United Studios chose him as director of its publicity department.

In seven years Dailey helped make many stars to national prominence. News of his past reached New York and Dailey's hired him as its West Coast editor.

Then in February of this year he was promoted to his present position. Dailey said, "Feature editing is a very interesting and very intriguing job. About 50 percent of the feature stories in McCall's are originated in our office. That is we think up the idea for the story and then give it to some writer to prepare. The rest of the stories are taken from material submitted to us by freelance writers.

"Before I went to work for McCall's all I had ever worked on was a newspaper and the publicity work at Universal. The deadline in newspaper work is more pressing than for the magazines. Everyday an editor has to turn out a paper. But when the newspaper makes a mistake it can cover up for it the next day. At McCall's if we make a mistake we can do nothing about it for 30 days."

Dailey has written about many outstanding personalities. But he returns to the start of his career to find the most outstanding of all. Huey Long is rated by this man, with 33 years of journalistic experience, as one of the most interesting men he has ever interviewed.

In 1929, Dailey met and married Abigail Heath. He is the father of a son and a daughter. His son, Pete, was one of the stars of the U. C. L. A. football team when it played in the Rose Bowl. His daughter was attending Colorado University, but decided to work with Young and Rubicam, an advertising agency in New York.

John Dailey expressed his trip down here in this fashion, "This is the last week of my vacation. I am down here relaxing and that is really what I have been doing."

Dailey will return to New York Monday by airplane. He will be back in his office and in his home on Beekman Place, thinking -- thinking of stories that will interest the housewives and other readers of McCall's magazine.

Shown are Patsy Gex, one of the members of the cast of "The Cat and Canary" and "The Monster," whose identity will be made known to theatregoers when the play opens on Nov. 11th, 12th and 13th, at the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre.

What's new with Chevrolet?

Even Air Conditioning, if you wish

Air is heated or cooled by a single unit that fits compactly into the front of the car. Requires no trunk space! (V8 models only.) And that's only one of the wonderful extra-cost options you can get!

Wonderful new Glide-Ride Front Suspension

New spherical joints flex freely to cushion all road shocks. New exclusive Anti-Dive Braking Control, assures "heads up" stops.

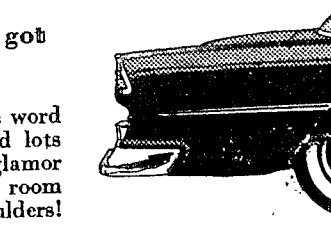

Easier steering, stopping, clutching

The new Chevrolet steers with ball-bearing ease, thanks to new friction-cutting Ball-Race Steering. New Swing-Type Pedals pivot at the top.

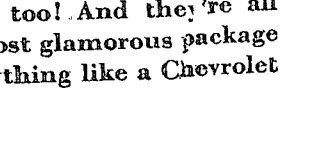

Tubeless tires as standard equipment

On all models! Proved tubeless tires give you greater protection against a blowout... deflate more slowly when punctured.

New Outrigger Rear Springs

Rear springs are longer—and they're attached at the outside of the frame. This means they're spaced wider apart, outrigger-fashion, to give you greater stability in cornering. And Chevrolet's new Hotchkiss drive shafts drive line shocks through the rear springs!

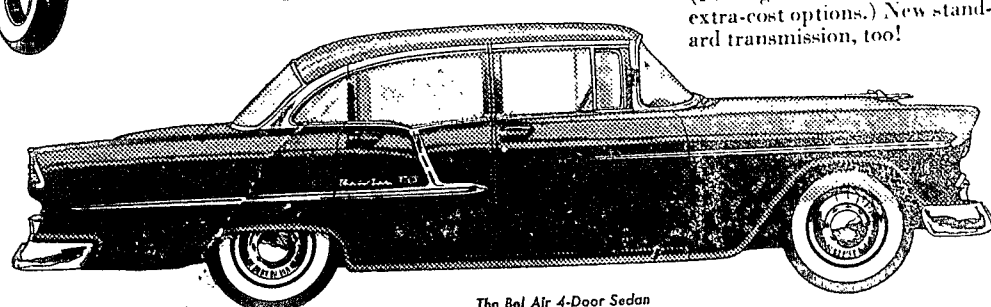

Three drives, including Overdrive

There's Powerglide teamed with the new V8 or the new "Blue-Flame 136." New Overdrive teamed with the new V8 or the new "Blue-Flame 123." (Powerglide and Overdrive are extra-cost options.) New standard transmission, too!

A ventilating system that really works

Chevrolet's new High-Level Ventilating System takes in cleaner air at hood-high level—away from road heat, fumes and dust.

The All Air 4-Door Sedan

Chevrolet and General Motors have started something—a whole new age of low-cost motoring—by taking a whole new look at the low-cost car. Here are new ideas, young ideas... and some of tomorrow's ideas, too! And they're all rolled up in the most glamorous package that ever wore anything like a Chevrolet price tag!

This is the car that began with a great idea—the idea that a low-priced car could be built that would have the style, the performance, the comfort and convenience features, and the fine quality "feel" of high-priced cars.

This is the car that only the world's leading car builders—Chevrolet and General Motors—could have built. The Motoramic Chevrolet!

Come in and see how the Motoramic Chevrolet for '55 is far more than a new model. It's more, even, than a completely new car. It's a whole new idea about cars!

Come in and meet the motoramic Chevrolet

How Can I?

Q. How can I make a hat cleaner. A piece of the cleaner is broken off, kneaded until soft, and then rubbed over the hat until all the dirt has been rubbed off. A good brushing follows, and in many cases the hat is as clean as when new.

Q. How can I read in bed so that it will not harm the eyes? A. Do not read when lying down unless propped up sufficiently, so that the page is held at right angles to the line of vision.

Q. How can I remove scorch stains? A. Onion juice is very effective in removing scorch stains from white materials.

Q. How can I keep eggs from cracking? A. Eggs will not crack while boiling if one end of each egg is pricked with a pin or needle before placing in the water. This makes an outlet for air and prevents the shell from cracking.

Q. How can I remove rust marks from a bathtub? A. If the porcelain bathtub or sink has yellow rust marks caused by constant dripping of water, remove them by rubbing with pumice stone.

Q. How can I prevent shrinking of blankets when laundering? A. Measure the woolen blanket before washing it, then dry on a piece of the material and place it underneath at the top of the pockets. They will not tear so easily when caught on things.

Q. How can I prevent the odor of a damp lump of crystal ammonia is put into a jar with three or four drops of oil of lavender. Add a few tablespoons of boiling water and let the jar stand uncovered in the room.

Q. How can I remove indelible ink stains? A. They can usually be removed by rubbing with equal parts of ammonia and turpentine.

Q. How can I make good baked apples? A. Baked apples will have an added flavor if the centers are filled with raisins before baking.

Modern Etiquette

Q. If a man is wearing a very soft hat, it is really necessary for him to tip this to a woman by removing it from his head - or isn't merely touching the brim all right in this case?

A. A man who only touches his hat is just "going through the motions" of courtesy. To correct, he should take his hat by the crown, instead of the brim, lift it slightly from his head and then replace it.

Q. When a man brings a guest to his home and presents him to his wife, does she make use of the customary acknowledgment, "How do you do?"

A. In this instance, it is better if the wife shows a little more cordiality and adds, "I am very glad to see you," or some such similar expression.

Q. When the conversation among the guests is centered about one person who is present, and is so complimentary that it really is embarrassing, what should this person do?

A. The best thing for him to do under these circumstances is to turn the conversation towards someone else, or some other subject.

Q. Who is the first to present his ring in a double-ring wedding ceremony?

A. The bridegroom.

D. Is it proper for a man to say, "I am very glad to have met you," when taking leave of a woman to whom he has just been introduced?

A. It is better if he waits until the woman expresses her pleasure (if any) over the meeting, before he expresses his own. If he says nothing, a nod of the head and a pleasant "good-by" is all that is necessary.

Pioneered Prosperity 1899-1954

Hancock Bank observes another anniversary in October, in a bank-building career that has spanned more than half a century.

More scientific progress has been made in the 55 years of its existence than in the 500 years that went before. Yet in that period we have had booms and panics, depressions and prosperity, peace and war, poverty and plenty.

When Hancock Bank opened its doors in 1899 the Mississippi Gulf Coast was recovering from a Yellow Fever epidemic and the economic depression of the 90's. A disastrous flood along the Mississippi River came in 1903 just as the Delta was recovering from the overflows of 1897.

The times were not propitious or promising in 1899, but Hancock Bank was born under no evil star. Mississippi, which had hardly overcome Reconstruction by 1899 slowly but surely forged ahead. The Coast survived the depressions of 1907 and 1932 and the hurricanes of 1915 and 1947. So it hasn't all been clover, plush or any bed of roses. There have been many disasters and disappointments.

But Mississippi, in our time, has emerged from a lumber and cotton economy to move rapidly and richly into her own. Certainly, the Mississippi Gulf Coast has blossomed as never before as its people enjoy unprecedented prosperity.

Pioneers in this area who blazed trails and foresaw our glowing future would be amazed today to see what has come to pass since they dreamed and labored.

Hancock Bank, which has known both good and bad times, pays tribute to the leadership of a fearless citizenship who paved the way and laid so firm a foundation.

As beneficiaries of those who have gone before, we have good reason to rejoice in these piping times and to face the challenge of the future with confidence. All things are possible to a people of vision, patience and persistence. It is in overcoming the impossible that a community rises above itself, and may we never grow soft or self-satisfied.

COASTING

By ANNE ORLEANS

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Amann came over from New Orleans for a long weekend which included the All Saints' Day holiday with the firm intention of going fishing but when the temperature dropped into the thirties Sunday morning they just burrowed a little deeper under the nice warm blankets. Ditto for the grandchildren, Jeff and Susan Chouette.

Helen Mestayer and Christine Renshaw took a late vacation and motored up to Connecticut. They left Helen's children, Dick and Beth with Helen's mother in Kosciusko, Miss. They stopped with friends for brief visits all along the way, the first stop being Laurinburg, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Mestayer, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Judlin going to California for a couple of weeks. They will go by train and visit Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Letters to Gladys and Peter Monroe now come from Norfolk, Va., where Commander John Lacouture, USN, and Betty are to be stationed. They had been at their summer home on Cape Cod ever since John returned from his tour of active duty that took him around the world. Like all Navy children, Joan and Johnny take another new school in their stride. All Susan and Richard have to do is to get used to the new house and did the family have a hard time finding one, as the base is crowded.

Lloyd and Marlin Edwards who bought Miss Lydia Magruder's home on Jeff Davis Avenue are just getting settled and little Peggy is looking for playmates.

Going to New Orleans tomorrow to spend the day with Marie Louise Blair, are Mrs. N. L. Carter, Mrs. A. P. Smith and Mrs. Horace Kergesen. Aren't they going to have a good time catching up on all the local news?

Occupying their Beach home for the weekend were Dr. and Mrs. I. J. Boulet. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Legeon of New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard LeTissier at home after the nicest possible vacation in Europe. They came over on the Queen Elizabeth on the same trip that brought Queen Mother Elizabeth of England to the United States. France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Holland and Belgium were the countries they visited. Paris was one of their first stops and they enjoyed that lovely city. In Italy, their stay in Naples and the special trip to the Isle of Capri was particularly interesting. Rome and Florence were a tourist's delight. The highlight of the trip for Mrs. LeTissier was the night in Venice when several gondolas with their private orchestra, made a tour of that enchanting city.

In Germany, in addition to visiting Cologne, Heidelberg and Frankfurt they took the boat trip to the Rhine. Stops were made in Lucerne, Brussels and Antwerp. To return to London after many years was to revisit familiar places and that was one of their longest stops exceeded only by their stay on the Isle of Guernsey, the original home of the LeTissier family. There were cousins living in the family home and LeTissiers scattered over the island.

A big sun is setting in the West, the soft gray Autumn haze spreads over the landscape and the most tantalizing odor is floating in the air coming from the big sugar refinery where the sugar cane juice is cooking. Bang! Bang! go the guns as the dove hunters follow the birds when they fly over the fields where the cane had been cut and the feeding is good. These are some of the things that are taking Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hayward from their home on the beach to Germania, their sugar cane plantation in Louisiana.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carrere last week were Ed Jr., and Rose Marie and the children, Ed III, Charlotte, Suzanne and Billy.

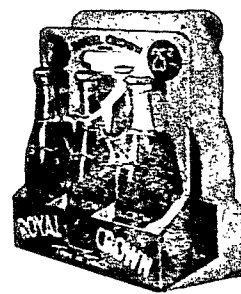

Those barbecue specialists, Mr. and Mrs. James Rees, celebrated Halloween with six couples from New Orleans who came over for the afternoon and evening. There was an out-door lunch with barbecued steaks, broast of chickens, hot dogs, creamed potatoes and a tangy bowl of tossed salad. For dessert, a great big coconut cake and hot coffee. As it became cooler, everyone gathered in the big living room where there was a cheerful fire in the open fireplace.

How would you like to have five children and all sick at the same time? That is what happened to Bessie and Jimmy Deplane. Just as soon as David and Mary convalescent, Lillian Mestayer, Bessie's sister, came over from New Orleans and took them back to her home in Genully. Now, Susie, Jack and Anne are much better.

Gladys and Bill Sellers who used to have a home on Nicholson Avenue, drove over last Sunday with Bill and Mary Jean and saw many of their old friends on the brief visit.

Scout and Clayton of Bay High and Dolphin of the Pass. At ends, Schenck of St. Stanislaus is a transfer from Welles, La. a outstanding pass receiver. A very good defensive ball player. His performances have been of the effective assets of the team.

In his third year of football, he was converted from a tackle to a blocker. He has scored several pass completions and blocking has been his specialty this year. His ability is of a high order.

Center is another thickly populated line position. Maurice Artigues of Stanislaus, Charles Moran of Bay High are the prospects.

Artigues is a three year veteran and has been a 60 minute man for Stanislaus this season. He backs up the line on defense and has a fine ability for sizing up plays. He tackles and blocks with terrific force. He is also very adept in pass situations covering the middle very effectively.

Moran is a 180 pound senior. He centers the ball well and is an agile line backer. His blocking is one of the reasons for the success of the Bay High running game.

Necaise has a three year bulge in experience. He is one of the best linemen on the Pass team. He is a tall boy but a little thin weighing 150.

Donald Cole of Bay High and Dick Fakier are the only two quarterback candidates. Cole is playing his first year at this position. He has proved that he is a good passer and a very shifty and fast runner. His deception is improving in every game. Donald is a senior.

Fakier is a transfer from Houma, La. He is an outstanding runner and has scored the majority of Stanislaus' touchdowns. His play calling has been on par with any high school quarterback. His passing has been effective in spots. He is a good defensive player.

Billy Rhodes and Walter Gex of Stanislaus, Henry Monti and Tommy Holden of Bay High, Lee Tillman of Pass High and Russell Mitchell of Kiln are leading the halfback slots.

Rhodes is a small boy but has a lot of class. His running has been one of the bright spots in the Stanislaus offense. He is shifty and fairly fast and has plenty of power for a boy of his size.

Gex in another youngster who is on the petite side. Like Rhodes Gex makes up for this drawback in shiftness and power. He is only a sophomore in school and is playing his second year of ball.

Monti is a returning letterman. He is the best all around runner on the Bay High team. He is fast and a good broken field runner. He is as good on plunges as he is on end runs. His defensive play has been very good.

Holden is a big boy and the type who bills over his opponent. He is not as shifty as some of his opponents but holds his own as Allen is also a transfer student. He played last year at Drew, Miss. He is a senior and weighs 180 pounds. His playing has made this position the strongest point on the Pass team.

Tillman was a three year letterman going into this game. His experience can readily be noticed in any game. He is a quick thinker and a very hard tackler.

The tackles who are under consideration are Bobby Boudin of Bay High, Leon Fazio and Douglas Talbot of Stanislaus and Charles Scooper of Pass High.

Boudin is playing his first year of football this season. He is a big and tough boy who loves the game. He is always active on the playing field or on the practice grounds. Bobby has a great desire to learn every detail of the game. He is a good defensive player and a fair blocker.

Fazio has been one of the strongest points in the Stanislaus line. He has a stocky build and is very fast for a lineman. There has been very little yardage gained through his spot. His blocking is impressive.

Scooper is a senior and is ending a full high school football career. He is a tall boy and weighs 180 pounds. He blocks well and is a good defensive man.

Six candidates are vying for the two guard spots. They are Larry Landrum and J. C. Perkins of Bay High, Pat Mooney, Alvin Scafide and Charles Rick of St. Stanislaus and Jimmy Allen of Pass Christian.

Landrum is a rookie in high school football but has been the stalwart in the middle of the Bay High line. With a little more experience his blocking should improve vastly.

Perkins is small as far as guards go. But he is fast and is always near the ball when Bay High is on defense. He has an uncanny sense for recovering fumbles.

Mooney is one of the peppier of the Stanislaus squad. He always hustles on the sidelines or in the game. His spirit is one of the backbones of the team. He has played mostly offensive ball and is a very good blocker for his size. He only weighs 140.

Scafide is a larger boy and is one of the reasons for the good gains made by Stanislaus thru the middle of the line. His playing also has been mostly confined to offensive.

Rick is the heaviest boy on the Stanislaus team. He weighs 250 pounds. Rick is a transfer from a high school in Dallas, Tex. He has only played on defense, being placed directly over the offensive center. He has rushed into the backfield several times to bring the ball carrier down for a loss.

STARS OF THE WEEK

ST. STANISLAUS

Maurice Artigues, a two-year letterman, truly deserves this title this week.

Against Biloxi he reached his highest form.

His interception of a Biloxi pass was the major point in the game. This enabled Stanislaus to secure the touchdowns that proved to be the margin of victory.

His defensive play was brilliant. He added in or personally made the majority of the tackles.

His blocking from the center position was very effective.

Throughout the season he has opened a wide hole for the quarterback sneak play, which has gained a number of yards each time it is called.

Friday night Dick Fakier scored on this play, even though Biloxi moved into a nine man line.

Maurice is the son of Mr. and of the Stanislaus team for the last couple of years.

Artigues a senior this year weighs 180 pounds and stands a little over 5 feet 7 inches. He has intentions of playing college football and should be the recipient of several offers.

Maurice is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Artigues, Sr., of Union Street.

BAY HIGH

Henry Monti, a fast and shifty sophomore has been selected as the outstanding star of his team this week.

Though he did not score for Bay High his line plunges and end runs aided the local team to move into scoring position.

Monti is a letterman from last year's team. He is a small boy, was the operation of our present day schools. Quite a number of speakers discussed the problems now facing Mississippi's public schools. There was a divided opinion as to whether or not school people of the state would support and work for the amendment to be voted on December 21 giving the majority the right to abolish public schools. The administrators Conference went on record at its final session as approving this amendment and agreed to work for it in their respective communities. There is a question in the minds of the leaders of our public school system as to whether or not public schools may be continued as segregated schools after Supreme Court has handed out its interpretation on the decision of May 17 relative to segregation in public schools. There will be various speakers who will appear within the next month to discuss the pros and cons of this amendment.

The theme for this meeting

Superintendents S. J. Ingram and E. E. Brandland attended the Administrators Conference at Jackson on October 21 and 22. This meeting was attended by the majority of school administrators in the state.

weighing near 145 pounds. But what he lacks in weight he more than doubles in determination and ability.

Throughout the season Henry has moved the ball for Bay High very consistently. He has scored several times.

Against Petal Henry was also one of the defensive standouts for his team. He covered the passing attack of Petal very effectively and came from his defensive halfback spot to make a number of tackles.

Henry is a quiet and modest boy. He trains hard and has a great love for the game of football.

With two more years remaining in high school, he is one of the boys who will be one of the biggest stones in any future building plans by Coach Lance Lumpkin.

Henry also plays basketball, track and is planning on playing baseball for Bay High this year.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Monti, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Slacum announce the birth of a son on Wednesday, October 27, at King's Daughters Hospital. Mrs. Slacum is the former Lanell Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Umbach of New Orleans spent the weekend at their home on Oak St.

Mr. A. J. Bordages and sisters Miss Marjorie Bordages and Mrs. James Schmidt of New Orleans spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Bourgeois, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Moss spent the weekend at their home on Beach

Buyers' Mart

Here is a little scrapbook of ideas to bear in mind during the upcoming holidays.

If you're planning anything in the way of tricky decorations for your table or home and need wire baskets, shelves or supports of any kind, check Mr. Boyle in Waveland. He can be located by contacting the PPP grocery.

Russell Maurigi is taking fruit cake orders and will need your Thanksgiving order right away if the cake is to be completed. Christmas orders should be in by the first of December. The cakes are again one dollar and a half a pound.

You can place your Christmas card orders at the Echo and don't forget you can also have cards with your own photographs on them at no extra cost.

Seeger's nursery still has chrysanthemums which are lower in price now that All Saints season is gone.

If you want to try a new product just being put on the market, Mercadal's Grocery is carrying a package cole slaw put out by the same people who make the well known Pre-Prepared potatoes.
